Entertain Regents at Luncheon.

The members of the board of regents of the state university who are out on a tour of inspection of the state agricultural station, spent part of Saturday in town. They were making the trip in autos, but on account of the bad roads the cars were abandoned at Kearney and they came to this city by rail. Saturday forenoon was spent at the North Platte station and at one o'clock the regents were given a luncheon at the Pacific hotel by members of the Chamber of Commerce. Plates were laid for twenty-eight. The guests present were regents W. G. Whitmore of Valley, V. G. Lyford of Falls City, F. L. Holler of Omaha, and J. E. Miller and P. L. Hall of Lincoln, and A. E. Burnett, dean of the agricultural college at Lincoln. Following the luncheon a number of addresses were made. W. V. Hoagland, as toastmaster calling on Messrs. Temple, Mayor Evans, Seeberger and Snyder and all the guests. The remarks were in line with the state university, the agricultural college and the several sub-stations.

Chancellor Avery, who is a member of the party, was delayed at Kearney and on account of belated trains did not arrive in time for the luncheon.

The party left for Scotts Bluff Saturday afternoon and returned to this city yesterday and were taken over to Curtis in the W. V. Hoagland and Frank Barber cars. The party will return here some time today and go east tonight.

At the luncheon the regents and Dean Burnett spoke very highly of the work being performed by Supt. Snyder.

$200 a Minute for Riding Horses.

Cheyenne, Wyo., June 20.—One thousand five hundred dollars for not more than five minutes' work will be the compensation of the cowboy winning the world's championship rough riding contest at Cheyenne's Frontier Days, July 21, 22, 23 and 24. His compensation will be at the rate of $5 a second, $200 a minute. The cowboy winning the world's championship steer roping contest will be paid better than $200 a minute.

The rough riding purse is $1,500, with a $500 saddle added for the winner. The winner will receive $1,000 cash. During the entire contest he will not be in the saddle to exceed five minutes, so the cash and saddle represent payment at the rate of $300 a minute.

The steer roping purse is $1,000 of which $600 will be paid the winner. He will not be roping and tying for more than three minutes. If that long, so his compensation will be at least $4 a second, $240 a minute.

Want Power at the Station.

While the regents of the state university were in town Saturday they had a conference with Manager Morey of the electric company, relative to furnishing the experimental sub-station with light and power. The electric company, it is understood, agreed to build a transmission line to the south limits of the city, the state to build from that point to the farm. The building of the line and the use of the current depends somewhat on the rate the company will make.

In case the proposition is accepted the state would use considerable current, not only in lighting the several houses and barns, but for power in operating the irrigation pump, the feed grinders and other machines.

If this line is built, why not make a boulevard of the road leading to the sub-station and have it lighted with electric lamps?

Heavy losses have been sustained by the producers of binding twine and harvesting machinery through the recent hail storms. One large shipment of 40,000 pounds of twine, was disposed of at Wood River. The hail wiped out the crop there and as a result this twine was reshipped to Lexington and Gothenburg. The hail of Friday night will again prevent use of this twine in the latter district. Harvesting machinery orders have been canceled in all the stricken districts.—Kearney Hub.

Story of murder of Vernon Connett. Get it at the Huffman Smoke House.

The Colonel's Rattlesnake.

In the little private tent on the circus grounds in which Col. William Frederick Cody spends his time when not appearing in the performances of the Sells-Floto Circus and Buffalo Bill's Original Wild West, which is coming here Monday, June 28th, many a good story is told—and most of the time they are told by Col. Cody himself. And Col. Cody, when he is telling stories tells real ones.

"Take gratitude for instance," the famous scout said recently, "there's nothing like it. Everything in the world feels gratitude. Just for instance there was my pet snake Reginald. Even he felt gratitude."

"Your what?"
The colonel's eyes twinkled.
"My pet rattlesnake, Reginald. I never saw such a grateful thing as that snake. I saved his life once and he never forgot it. I was hunting one morning when I found him half crushed under a rock. I picked him out, took him home, dressed his wounds and fed him some mush and, sir, that snake never forgot it. Use to be waiting for me at the door every evening when I came home. I could just see in that rattlesnake's eyes that he was racking his brain to pay me back and show his gratitude."

At last the opportunity came. I had charge of a bunch of gold one night, and when I was sleeping a Mexican broke in the house to steal it. But Reginald was on guard. I woke up to hear the Mexican yelling his head off, and ran out into the kitchen to find that Reginald had hogtied him by wrapping himself around the Mexican's ankles. And that wasn't the end of it. For fear that I wouldn't wake up, Reginald had stuck his tail out of the window and was rattling for the police. Now if that wasn't gratitude I'd like to know what is!"

NO REASON FOR IT.

When Citizens of North Platte Show the Way.

There can be no reason why any reader of his city who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a North Platte citizen says:

Mrs. A. G. Wessburg, 708 west Fourth street, North Platte, says: "I had a dragging pain in my back and trouble with my kidneys. A doctor diagnosed my case as a floating kidney. Many a day I was unable to stand on account of the pain through my kidneys and the kidney secretions were unnatural. An operation was advised, but luckily I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a supply from McDonnell & Graves' Drug Store, (now Schiller & Co.'s Drug Store) and began using them. A few days removed he pains and restored my kidneys to their proper working order. Another of my family has since been troubled by kidney complaint and has had a world of good from this remedy."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wessburg had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Heavy Hail at Gothenburg.

Friday evening a hail storm which extended from Vroman, in the east part of this county, to Lexington, and covering a strip from one to three miles in width, proved very destructive. At Gothenburg the hail was of sufficient size to break in skylights made of putter inoff plate glass, batter shingles off roofs, mow branches and leaves from the trees and break hundreds of window lights. The stones were driven through window screens as easily as though made of paper. Crops in the path of the storm were entirely destroyed, and the loss will run into thousands of dollars.

Woman Cures Horse Colic.

The men were away as usual. The horse was bad. A lone woman could not "drench" in the old way. She called up a neighbor and her men were away—but: "We have Farris Colic Remedy that you drop on the horse's tongue and the horse was well when the men came home. Moral: Get Farris Colic Remedy so the women can cure horse colic. We sell it at 50c a bottle on the Money Back Plan. Sold by A. F. Fink.
